

Calero

One partner to manage all your expenses

The Leading Technology Expense Management
Solution for Complex Enterprises

Take Control of Your Technology Expense Management

Calero.com – the enterprise-grade expense management software that enables full visibility of your entire technology estate.

Eliminate spreadsheets and swivel-chair management with the Calero.com platform, offering full lifecycle management from procurement to payment to optimization, unlocking hyper-detailed data, and streamlining daily operations with automation.

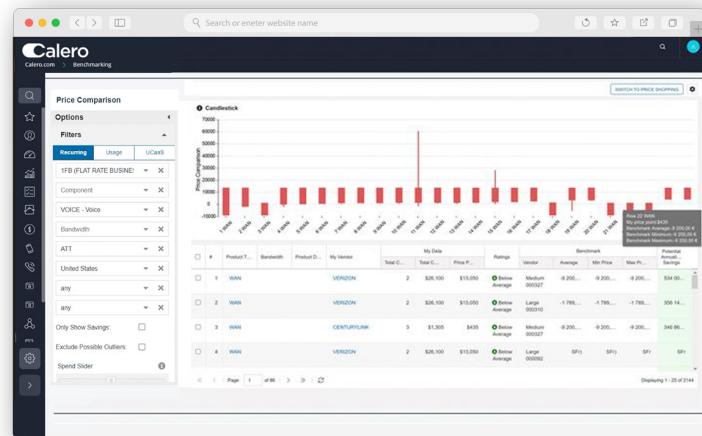

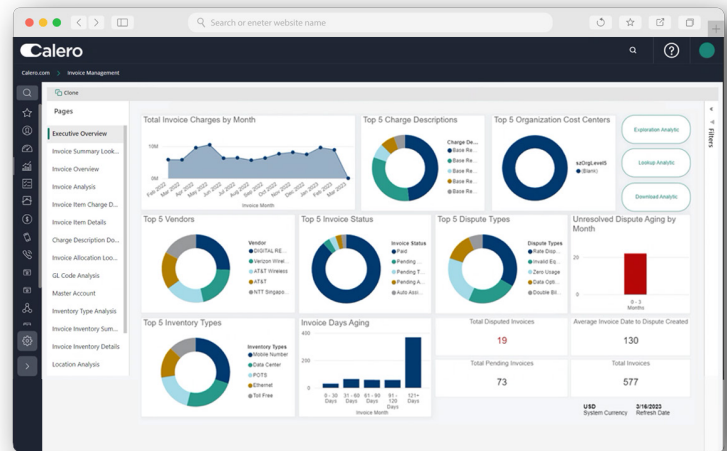

Leverage unmatched configurability with software that scales and business experts who act an extension of your team.

Gain Visibility. Leverage Automation. Reduce Costs.

Telecom Expense Management

Centralize and manage telecom expenses, inventory and assets on a single platform. Leverage an easy-to-use software platform and enable order management, usage analysis, call accounting and ongoing expense management for your telecom environment. The Calero solution addresses pain points in managing a global enterprise communications estate.

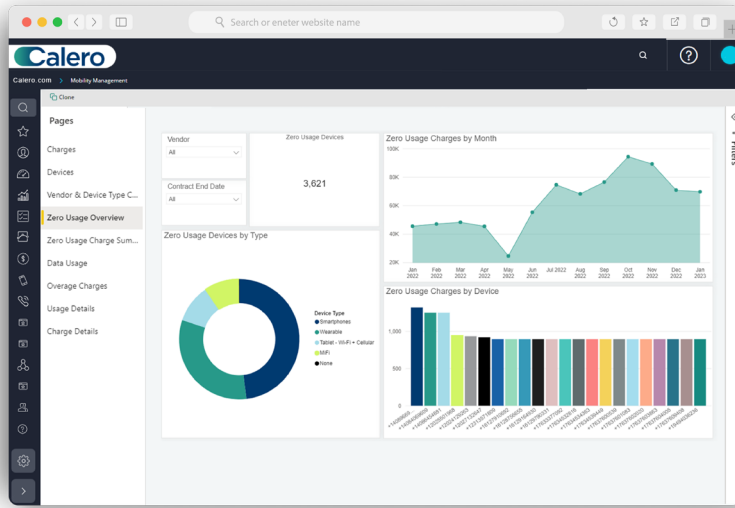

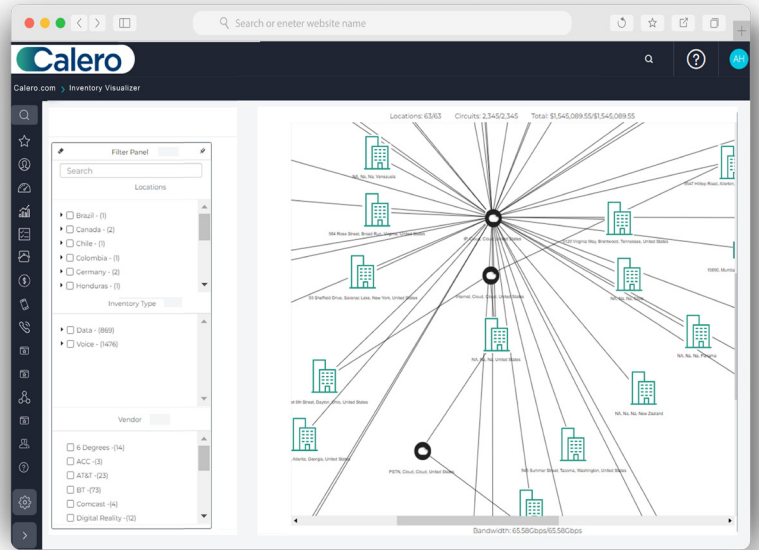

Benchmarking

Now you can know true global market prices by leveraging what other companies actually pay. TrueSense™ allows you to search and analyze product and service rates in a powerful, anonymized database to save on telecom costs. Compare prices against industry benchmarks to bring clarity to the complexity of regional and carrier-specific fluctuations.

Network Visualizer

Understanding your network inventory is no longer the time-consuming process it used to be. Rapidly create a network map showing your entire Telecom inventory with unparalleled accuracy, including locations, circuits, telephone numbers and more. Our Network Visualizer automatically updates your cloud-based network diagram, delivering industry leading information and insights, helping you control your network.

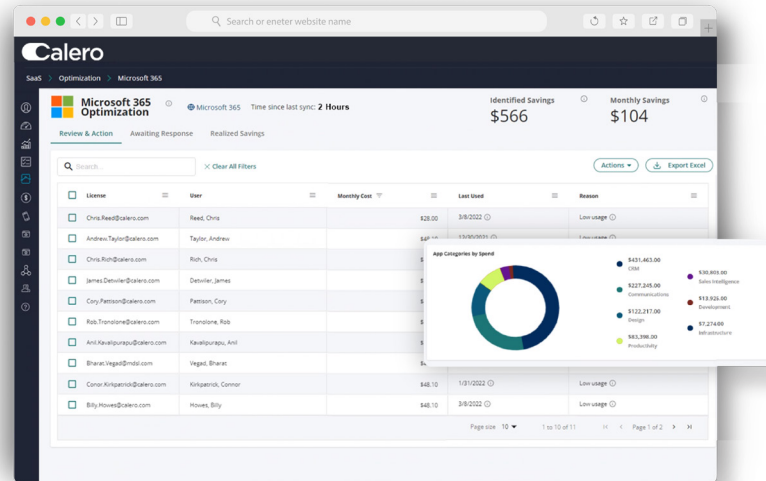

Managed Mobility Solutions

Managed Mobility Solutions (MMS) scale where you need them and provides technology that enables your organization to be a strategic differentiator within your industry. Calero ensures that members of your workforce have the tools they need to stay connected, supported, and productive wherever your business takes them, from a single platform.

SaaS Expense Management

Discover, manage and optimize Your SaaS Subscriptions, like Zoom and MS Teams. Unified visibility and management of all Unified Communications-as-a-Service (UCaaS) and Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) spend, including subscriptions, variable teleconferencing and call usage. Automatically discover, allocate and optimize UCaaS spend with turnkey integrations, enabling end-to-end invoice, subscription (phone, webinar, rooms etc.), call accounting, contract and renewals management.
